

WESTHAVEN COMMUNITY SERVICES DISTRICT

RESOLUTION 96-2
EMERGENCY WATER DELIVERY

WHEREAS, WCSD Ordinance 95-1, Section 1102 provides for delivery of water, on an emergency basis, to residents of the District not connected to the water system; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Westhaven Community Services District has recognized a need to specify more exactly the conditions of such emergency water deliveries; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, the Board of Directors of the Westhaven Community Services District establishes the following conditions governing emergency water deliveries

1. Delivery shall be made only after determination by the District Manager that there is adequate water supply available beyond the needs of the District customers and that such delivery can be reasonably made.
2. Delivery shall be made only to dwellings existing within the District as of December 31, 1987.
3. Delivery shall be made only to dwellings with an on-site water supply which fails to produce adequate volumn during dry season, or fails temporarily due to a unforeseen event, such as pump failure.
4. Delivery shall not be provided on a regular, year-round basis.
5. Delivery shall be limited to 3000 gallons per month and to two deliveries per month.
6. By accepting emergency water delivery, receiver of the water agrees that the District is not responsible for the quality of the water and agrees to hold harmless the Westhaven Community Services District as well as the District's employees and agents.

PASSED, APPROVED, and ADOPTED this twenty-first day of October, 1996 by the following roll call vote:
